"We can only change society by faithfully proclaiming the Gospel, which changes lives from the inside out.".... John MacArthur

Sylvia proudly holds baby Laquanda!

5 come to Christ in June .. Here are two of their stories

Keisha, age 31, came to Gateway-Irvington unsure about having an abortion. After viewing "The Harder Truth" and "After the Choice", Keisha changed her mind on abortion. Irene shared the need for Christ and Keisha committed her life to Him. The test was negative!

Raul (not his real name) only speaks Spanish. He came to Gateway-Elizabeth with his girlfriend. After hearing the gospel from Dave (through interpreter Gaudy), Raul came to Christ! Praise the Lord!

Banquet speaker: Rev. Michael Westbrook
Rev. Westbrook is Chairman of the Board of Gateway and director of Young Life, Newark (pictured far right with youth campers at Young Life camp, Glen Spey, NY, October 2001)

Our Banquet singer will be Sharon Dean

As a singer/songwriter and author, Sharon Dean has spent the last two decades ministering a unique gospel sound to the world. Her evolution from a 5-year old vocal wonder to a spiritually and vocally mature artist, stands as a significant accomplishment in the realm of Christian music. Her ability to embrace every musical genre, while maintaining her strong gospel message, not only speaks to her musical skill, but to the dedication she has to the Lord.
